Dear Mr. BIGELBACH,

Thank you for your response from Nov. 4th, 2019 to our correspondence dated Oct. 20th, 2019.
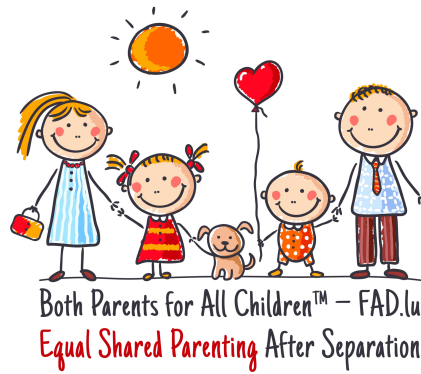

In our latest letter we have inquired of a list of judges from the Family Court residing and proceeding in the Luxembourg and Diekirch Tribunals. In your letter responding to our request you stated that you are not in position to provide us with the list.

Could you please explain why?, as we find your response not only surprising but also standing in contradiction to what can be defined as normal practice and basic inquiry of a resident or citizen of a modern, democratic country respecting judicial system transparency. A country and state administration we understand Luxembourg would like to be perceived as.

Considering your rejection could you please point us to the internal regulation of the Tribunal d'arrondissement de Luxembourg, a law or an Article in the Luxembourg Civil Code that prevents you from fulfilling our request providing basic information that should be openly accessible?

Should our inquiry be outside of your competences could you kindly provide us with contact details for an administrative office in the Luxembourg Court that has the list. Alternatively, please let us know
