Subject : follow-up on your emails from December 8 and December 19 respectively.

Dear Mr. Rybiński,

Thank you for bringing this particular subject to my attention. Equality, meaning commitment to both: women and men – mothers and fathers, I am very interested in the matter.

Reading through your emails and given the technicality of the facts put forward, it is the Ministry of Justice, which is most competent in following up with the case.

Thus, and in order to address your concerns properly, I take the liberty of forwarding your mail to the Minister of Justice, M. Félix Braz, for expertise.

I will keep myself informed about the future developments of this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Taina Bofferding
Minister for Gender Equality
